Student Council

A very active student council got off to a good start this year. Beginning with numerous meetings and planning sessions during the summer, they laid plans for an elaborate homecoming week. The planning must have paid off because they gave the school a week of activities that were fun and successful. The highlight of the week, however, was the homecoming dance, for which they lowered the gym ceiling, made trees, borrowed fountains, covered walls and made those who attended forget they were really in a gymnasium. With this success behind them, they look forward to other ventures in the spring. They may well have created an act that will be difficult for future councils to equal, let alone top.

1 The full student council gathers on the steps for a group portrait. They are pictured individually by class representatives in the following pages.

2 Bill Warlop and Tom Meyers fight out some of the initial problems editors have with layouts

3 John Lussan finds that a male editor-in-chief sometimes has more than he bargained for in dealing with three female editors Theresa Allaert, Theresa DeGrande and Sue Garland. Absent on the day of pictures was Terry Lootens who is co-editor of the Learning section of the book

Publications

School publications at Alleman serve in two ways. The newspaper, The AllamaNews, functions as a record of those events which fill students' lives. It serves in a more practical way student interest in composing reviews, writing articles and putting together a daily newspaper. The newspaper, then, is also a training ground for an area that might become a student's vocation. The yearbook, on the other hand, is a record of major events of the school year. It is published once and furnishes us with a photographic record of events we want to remember and faces we don't want to forget. Both publications are a valuable part of the extra-curricular activities available to students at Alleman High School.

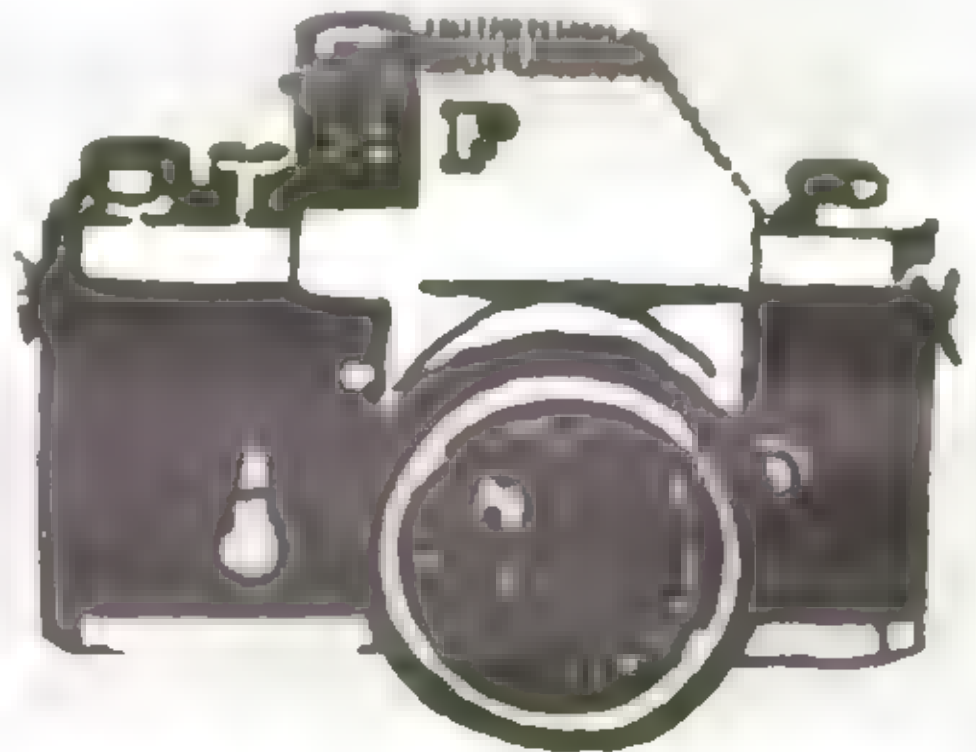

The AllemaNews, this year, was a real success. This year's editor was Sheila Rafferty with the co-editor being Jane McLaughlin. With all the layouts, deadlines and pictures they still managed to publish one paper per month. The staff members were: Julie Manhard, Barb Walzem, Jane McLaughlin, Diane Kohrs, Sheila Shunick, Colleen Rafferty,

Karen Cuervorst, Kim Porter, Mary Jo Sailer, Tammy Murphy, Loreto Prieto, Denise Marie, Rich Core, Pete Ffitch, Paul Fessler and Ray Coyle. Members not present for the picture were Sheila Rafferty and Greg Cotton of "Cotton's Corner" Congratulations to a fine staff and paper

Congratulations to all those who helped. Pat Naab may not have painted that much but he sure had a good time as shown in the picture below

The Fransican Junior Volunteers were large in number this year giving the hospital the help that it needed. Running errands, serving meals, visiting with the sick and preparing rooms are their main duties. Many of them are doing this in preparation for becoming a nurse later. They are a big help to the hospital.

The volunteers this year were: Mike, Jackie, Lisa Langheim, Vicki Pinta, Shirley Schrage, Terri Menden, Vicki O'Neil, Theresa Peterson, Lisa Morlock, Terry Curran, Josie Posateri, Sue Sacca, Theresa Otto.

Fransican Junior Volunteers

*This Year's Wrestlingettes were: Laura Janney, Gina Niah, Angie Mapes, Maribeth Brozovich, Kathy Patting, Luanne Mitchell, Amber Myers, Terri Mowen, Martha Murray, Julie Rinkus, Laurie Goodwin, Darcy Baker, Sara Murray,
Kirsten Runberg, Marika DeWaele, Cindy Armetta, Sherri Justus, Diane Kohrs, President: Mary Jo Sauer.*

The Wrestlingettes are a great asset to the wrestling team and coaches. They keep score, run the clock, make posters, and give presents and oranges, to their guys. They're always at the meets supporting and cheering on their guys. In their few years they have become very important to the school.

Wrestlerettes

Hey Laura, that must have been some move by Gregg Johnson!

The good little wrestlerettes making posters for their guys.

Since it has only been in existence for two years the Drama Club has done remarkably well. With the excellent coaching of Miss McGregor, they put on the school's first play in many years. The play was, "Barefoot In The Park". It was very successful proving the Drama Club is here to stay.

Some of the members of the Drama Club are: Jan Turt SEATED, Tony Morenweiser, Carl Daulhäuser, Chris DeWilde, Ann Sammons, Mary St Ledger, Joe Cuparola.

Another stage romance eh 'Steve Elliot'.

A lot of preparation and consultation goes into the play before opening night.

The Yearbook staff has to put in a lot of hard work to put out the Yearbook. There are layouts to be made, pictures to be taken and deadlines to meet. They hope to put out a fine Yearbook this year

Staff members were Ann Wiggins, Tricia Mier, Lori Van Natta, Kathy DePorter, Angie Mapes, Eileen Garland, and Martha Murray

Cross Country

Pete ffitch heads for the flag pursued by his Moline archrival

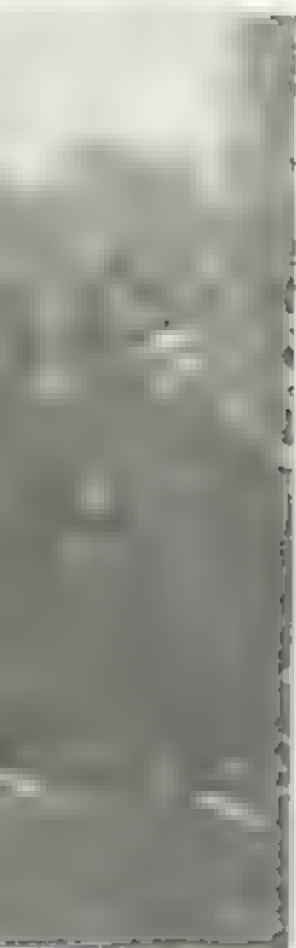

The Alleman Cross Country team mentally prepare themselves for the upcoming run.

This years cross country team, although plagued by injuries early in the season, was blessed by a good amount of outstanding achievement. One of these achievement was a state finish by senior letterman Pete ffitch. Pete, a three year letterwinner in Cross Country, was plagued by illness and injury in the early season, but came back strong at the end of season to win the crucial meet

The team this year was compiled mostly of juniors, thus Coach Tim Trummer should have a fine nucleus to build a strong team for next year.

Varsity Football

This year's varsity football team was a challenge to our new head coach, Wayne DeSutter. Coach DeSutter was the head football coach at Sherrard High School, where he built up quite a reputation for winning. It wasn't so this year, at least not in the won-lost column. This year was a transition year, a year of change. Coach DeSutter said it was hard. "We had a lot of talent but they were dropping like flies because of injuries. I think that if we could have caught a few more passes in the Rocky game it could have been a turning point."

Although this year's team didn't win most of their battles, with stars like Mike Schroeder and Bill Sherwin high stepping forward along with receivers Mike George and Steve Meenan pulling in some passes we should see a pretty good representation in the college ranks offensively next year. The Defense was strengthened by Brian Doak, Chuck Goodwin, Pat McGuire and Pete Murry. Next year should prove interesting, with returning Letterman and up coming sophmores.

"Little Pioneers" Struggle Through Season

This year's sophomore football team went through a difficult year, but the hard working gridders of Coach Phil Sailer proved that they have the ability to withstand the rigors of big time football. The "Little Pioneers" played with great intensity in each game, but found that the much larger schools had a greater amount of depth on the bench. Though coming out on the losing side in most games, the soph ball club were in all games until the final gun.

Though smaller than most teams, the sophs did not lack in talent. Quarterback Dave Salmonson proved to be an outstanding asset to the team and was eventually moved up to the varsity where he performed competently. Chris Kennedy and Mark Rangel manned the backfield excellently, and ran for good yardage thanks to a fine offensive line. The Sophmores had a fine receiving corps led by Adam Linger. Defensively the line was anchored by Joe Banaszek and Danny Hubbs, and with a fine group of linebackers and backs the defensive kept the team in every ballgame.

Coach Phil Sailer and his assistants did a fine job getting the sophmores ready for action. Though with out the large amount of players going out the coaching staff got the players ready for every ballgame.

This year's sophomore football team played with as much spirit as any team, and will be a fine group of ballplayers when they move up to Coach DeSutter's varsity.

"Cut the Mickey Mouse." They sure did with a 7-1-1 record this season. Coach George was very pleased with this years performance and sees a lot potential. I can see why, the team racked up 152 points on offense and they held their opponents to only 39 points. Quite an explosive ball club in my opinion. This club can go pretty far. They proved that this year by taking it down to the wire this year and ending up in a tie for the Quad-city Freshman league. There's alot of talent on this team, I just hope they use it. Good luck next year freshmen.

Golf

This year's golf team was a veteran squad and compiled a respectable record on the links of the Quad City area. Though the next couple of years will be spent on rebuilding Mr. Morris is working at getting the young men to put us through. Members of the golf team were, Jim Morris, Tom Kautz, Terry Lootens, Ed Mowen, John Daugherty and Dan Hogan.

Girls Basketball

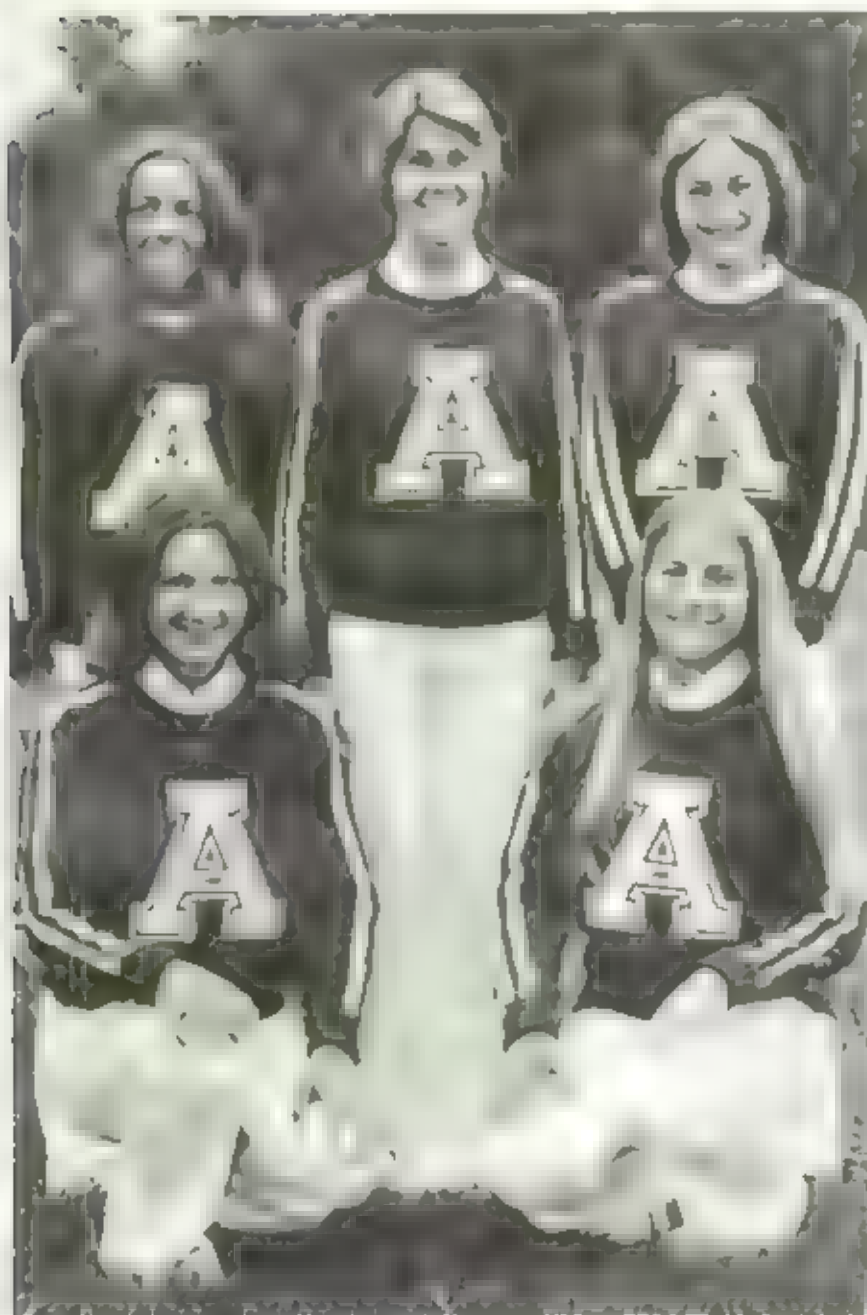

For only their second season, the girl's basketball team has really come a long way. In the Rock Island tournament they received third place by defeating East Moline. Since the squad is mostly comprised of underclassmen the team did lack experience but should be a tough competitor next season. One of the highlights of the season was their win over the previously undefeated Erie team. Congradulations girls and good luck next season

Cheerleading

This year's school spirit was at an all time high thanks to wrestling cheerleaders, Ann Wiggins, Kelly Schmitt, Kelly McBride, Shirlee Nicholson, and Theresa VanGetson. Fresh-Soph cheerleaders: Kate Fecht, Sue Laurin, Julie Guzzo, Chris Thomson, and Pam Armetta. Varsity cheerleaders: Donna Ferguson, Mary Beth Peck, Theresa Petrick, Lori Dowsett, Kathy Hanson.

WHERE DO YOU FIT IN?

Fifty-seven members of the Alleman High School Class of 1976 found they fit in at the Quad-Cities Campus of Black Hawk College, joining over 500 recent Alleman grads who have been enrolled in college credit or career programs.

There's a place for you, too.

Since 1946, we've helped thousands of students earn college credit. Many have gone on to earn baccalaureate, masters' and professional degrees.

College credit isn't all we have to offer. Since 1965, we've prepared thousands of other students for careers in technical, business and vocational occupations.

If you're not sure where you fit into the picture, we have counselors ready to talk with you. Appointments can be made by calling 796-1311, Ext. 383.

And, if money is a problem, our financial aids office can probably help. Give them a call at 796-1311 Ext. 373.
